A MESSAGE FROM THE CHANCELLOR

Dear Future Business Leaders,

It fills me with immense pride and anticipation to address you today, a group of bright minds setting your sights on the dynamic world of business through the pursuit of a qualification in Business Administration. Your decision to embark on this rigorous yet rewarding journey speaks volumes about your ambition, your drive to excel, and your understanding of the transformative power of business in shaping our future.

As you stand at the cusp of this significant academic and professional endeavour, I want to share a few thoughts that I hope will resonate with you and guide you through your journey at the School of Business.

A BBA or an MBA is not merely a degree; it is a crucible where your existing knowledge and skills will be forged anew, enhanced by cutting-edge business principles, strategic thinking, and a global perspective. You will delve into the intricacies of finance, marketing, operations, human resources, and strategy, gaining a holistic understanding of how organizations function and thrive in an increasingly complex and interconnected world.

Secondly, embrace the challenge that comes with this opportunity. The curriculum is demanding, requiring dedication, perseverance, and a willingness to step outside your comfort zone. You will be pushed to analyse complex case studies, engage in rigorous debates, collaborate on team projects, and present your ideas with clarity and conviction. Embrace this intellectual rigor; it is in these challenges that true learning and growth occur.

Thirdly, cultivate a growth mind-set. The economy is constantly changing, shaped by new technologies and emergence of new markets. Your journey at BBA and MBA programs at the School Of Business will equip you with the foundational knowledge, but your ability to adapt, learn continuously, and embrace innovation will be crucial for long-term success. Show curiosity, keep upskilling yourself, and develop an open approach.

Fourthly, network diligently. Your fellow students, faculty, and alumni network will be invaluable assets throughout your career. Engage actively in classroom discussions, participate in extracurricular activities, and build meaningful relationships. These connections will provide you with diverse perspectives, mentorship opportunities, and potential collaborations in the years to come. Remember, it's all about the people that you interact with and the relationships that you form with them.

Fifthly, develop your leadership skills. BBA or an MBA is not just about understanding business functions; it's about becoming an effective and ethical leader. Look for opportunities, take initiative, and inspire your team to do the same. Reflect on your leadership style and strive to develop qualities such as empathy, integrity, and the ability to make sound decisions under pressure.

Finally, remember the purpose of business. While profit and growth are important, businesses also have a responsibility to contribute positively to society. Consider the ethical implications of your decisions and strive to create sustainable and responsible business practices that benefit all stakeholders.

As you embark on this exciting chapter, I encourage you to approach your studies with passion, dedication, and a commitment to lifelong learning. The knowledge and skills you acquire here, coupled with your inherent talents and aspirations, will empower you to make a significant impact on the world of business and beyond.

Indira University is committed to providing you with world-class education and the resources you need as you enter the corporate world.

May your journey at Indira University be a transformative and fulfilling experience that propels you towards your highest aspirations.

A MESSAGE FROM THE VICE-CHANCELLOR

Dear Students,

Congratulations on choosing Indira University's School of Business as the starting point for your academic, professional, and personal growth. With more than three decades of excellence in education, our parent organization, Shree Chanakya Education Society, has played a pivotal role in shaping industry-ready professionals who are not only equipped with technical expertise but are also grounded in ethical values, making a meaningful impact on the global workforce and the communities they serve.

The School of Business is a premier destination for undergraduate and postgraduate management education, dedicated to nurturing professionals who can drive organizational growth and innovation. With a legacy of academic excellence and a commitment to holistic development, the school offers valuable MBA and BBA programs that bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical application.

At Indira University, our programs are crafted to go beyond traditional learning. Our core curriculum integrates sustainability, ethical leadership, and the Indian Knowledge System, ensuring that students are equipped with both knowledge and values. The students are offered many electives, allowing them to tailor their education as per their career goals. Some electives focus on enhancing livelihood skills and preparing students to contribute meaningfully to the industry. Others are designed to promote well-being and personal fulfilment, recognizing that a balanced life is integral to professional success.

Our Incubation and Innovation Cell 'Swakiyam' will support and nurture students to be innovators and entrepreneurs. Through our Center of Excellence, we equip students with the essential skills and insights needed to thrive in their careers and create a meaningful impact on the global business stage.

At Indira University, I and U will make a better future for ourselves!

What Do Our Alumni Say?

From securing top leadership roles in esteemed organizations to successfully venturing into entrepreneurship, our graduates and postgraduates continue to make a significant impact on the global business landscape. Their success stories continue to inspire future students!

I, Akanksha Wagdarikar (Patil), am grateful for the opportunities I've had to grow both academically and personally during my time in college. The challenging coursework, combined with the support of dedicated professors and a vibrant campus community, has shaped me into a more confident and driven individual. Through engaging in extracurricular activities, such as volunteering and leadership roles in clubs, I've developed essential life skills, including communication, problem-solving, and time management. These experiences have helped me discover my passion for pursuing a career in HR, and I'm excited to continue my journey here, knowing I have a solid foundation for success in both my education and future career. The college environment has truly inspired me to push beyond my limits and strive for excellence.

Looking back on my education in the ISBS one word that comes to mind is exceptional, I found the classes and knowledge taught to be rewarding in every aspect, resulting to immediate success in my career upon Post graduation. While at ISBS, I studied Marketing, a subject I was always fascinated by. One of the greatest things about the Marketing Department is the professors. They truly understand the merging of lectures and real-world examples to review while learning different topics in the subjects. I thoroughly enjoyed viewing ongoing current events through the lens of lecture material in this degree. I feel I use the knowledge learned from my degree every day in my career, I feel ISBS PGDM prepared me for what I would face once entering the job market, allowing me to hit the ground running and have success in various roles so far. I currently sit as the Advertising Manager for Meesho. My career has blossomed in the Business Intelligence space, solely due to the foundations of the curriculum that allowed me to build on all the unique classes in the business field. The core principles taught in this class set me up to understand and implement various analytical methods within companies. The degree earned at ISBS will set you up with all the tools needed to have a successful career in any path you follow. I am proud to be a part of such a great institution and call myself a falcon.

- Jagat Maheshwari

(Batch: 2015-17)

INDIRA SCHOOL OF BUSINESS STUDIES PGDM is much beyond just an "institution"...It donates a "Culture"...Culture of excellence, empowerment, and enrichment.

Being a part of ISBS, I felt blessed. College has molded my personality and clarified my vision of the future. The day is not far when people will recognize me with the name of ISBS PGDM and I am very grateful to the institution for providing me guidelines and motivation to inspire me to achieve my goals.

- Dushyant Sahu

(Batch: 2017-19)

Relationship Manager - Working Capital, IndusInd Bank

I will cherish my experience with ISBS PGDM for the rest of my life. Taking a postgraduate course from this institution challenged me personally, academically, and professionally in accomplishing my career goals while also assisting me in gaining knowledge and skills of the contemporary world. I have seen our skills and competence reach their pinnacle because of the learning environment supported by highly knowledgeable, experienced, and encouraging faculties. Overall ISBS PGDM stands evergreen on my life's journal pages.

- Atharva Deshpande

(Batch: 2020-22)

I am grateful to INDIRA SCHOOL OF BUSINESS STUDIES PGDM for helping me unleash my worth in these 2 years as a memorable experience. I witness myself that though the time runs fast, but no one finishes last as learning never slows down. Course curriculum & club activities have provided me a platform to work with my peers coming from a diverse range of backgrounds, interests, and talents, thereby equipping me with skills required for succeeding in cross-cultural environments in my career ahead.

- Ankit Sinha

(Batch: 2017-19)

Senior Manager, AU Bank

Your life has taken a turn and now it's time to ditch hard work for smart work because most of your time will be spent in learning things that you never bothered about. Indira School Of Business Studies is one such place that will give you a chance to come out as a star and secure your future but only if you are ready to work for it. Else you keep waiting for someone to spoon feed and adjust with what's left. Work and work until you get to your dream. I got my dream job only because of Indira School of Business Studies PGDM which understood my passion.

- Charles Prem

(Batch: 2019-21)

Sales Manager, Times of India

The unique and distinctive proposition of learning at ISBS PGDM through collective discourse providing both theoretical concept clarity and application-oriented methodology has helped me in understanding the management concepts in a more effective way. ISBS offers education which is beyond the four walls of the classroom. ISBS PGDM has helped me to broaden my perspective to look at things. In addition to the academics, it is the podium that ISBS PGDM has given me for the development of my leadership skills that I would cherish for a lifetime.

- Ketan Kirad

(Batch: 2011-13)

Regional Manager, Forbes Marshall Pvt. Ltd.

In my institute I saw a consistent pattern for exposure, learning of skills faculty involvement & student bonding. For me It's not just an PGDM but an upliftment of my character, critical thinking ability and ready to grab & shape opportunities tuning to me. The amount of networking it provides, amazes me. I look up to our faculties for sharing their industry knowledge in shaping us & constantly taking us out from our comfort zone.

- Sonali Mishra

(Batch: 2020-22)

Key Accounts Manager, Global Space Technologies Ltd.

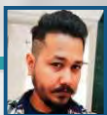

Deciding to do PGDM from Indira School of Business Studies was the best decision I made, the journey here have been full of opportunities which has helped me to become the strong and confident person I am today. Even in the tough times of covid-19 our institute stood by us, and I can proudly say that now I am working with ICICI Bank. I can't thank ISBS PGDM enough for helping me grow and become a better person.

- Chahak Jain

(Batch: 2019-21)

Relationship Manager, ETRG, ICICI Bank

My experience in Indira School of Business Studies PGDM was wonderful. No doubt one of the best B - Schools. Starting from Day 1 till the last exam of last semester always learned something new. Faculties are always there to help you out. On top of that there are many events where you can enhance your skills even you have the chance to showcase your leadership quality. It's a place where you can be able to connect lots of people or one can increase their networking. Talking about the placements there are enough companies where you can easily get placed with the help of right mentorship from the faculties. Overall, it was package of rightful knowledge, degree and expertise required before entering a corporate work.

- Abhishek Sarkar

(Batch: 2017-19)

Sr. Analyst, FIS

My experience in ISBS PGDM was overwhelming as everyday was exciting and full of different challenges where I usually used to come out of my comfort zone, like improving my presentation skills and communication skills, opening my mind to new ideas and knowledge, and thinking and performing some out of the box tasks. Additionally, I had overcome my limitations, like my fear of being judged, by standing out and putting forward my own opinion on different aspects, taking ownership and responsibility of my task, becoming better each day, and handling and managing different people who were still able to execute a task. Moreover, I must say ISBS has given me some glimpses of corporate life, like handling pressure, being a multitasker, not taking anything on my head, and still giving my best. This journey with ISBS PGDM has helped us become better professionals.

- T Shashank Reddy

IIMP BBA programme in healthcare and hospital management. I appreciate you giving me the fantastic opportunity to work at Manipal Hospital. Additionally, I have the chance to collaborate closely with the medical staff in this hospital, which will allow me to learn a lot about the healthcare sector first-hand. The team at Manipal Hospital, Baner is always available to respond to inquiries and provide advice, ensuring that the intern had a comprehensive and educational experience. Internships are an excellent way for students to invest in their future. They offer practical learning opportunities, access to industry contacts, and a competitive advantage in the employment market. I advise you to look for internship opportunities to advance your professional development.
